KLS inks MoU with CII & Belgaum Foundry

BELAGAVI: Karnatak Law Society (KLS) Gogte Institute of Technology (GIT) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and Belgaum Foundry Cluster (BFC) to usher a new step to bridge the gap between industry and academics.

The platform is also a march towards nation building through skill development and employment generation.

Visionary Laghu Udyog Mitra Mandal (VLMI), Belagavi Chapter, was also launched at GIT.

VLMI is the only chapter in the country after Pune, constituted to follow the footsteps of Dr A P J Abdul kalam.

Prof Shoji Shiba, Padmashree and Deming prize Awardee, TQM guru from Tokyo shed light on various teaching methodologies to be adopted by academic institutes in a quest to make learning unique and real time based. He said education for students should aim to create future leaders and enable holistic learning.

Prof Shiba shared his working experiences with various IIMs aimed at teaching leadership traits and narrated instances with corporate companies like Tata motors, TAFE intended to execute village development through Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) exercises. His session provided crucial inputs and guidance to gain competitive edge.

Prof Sairatnam, President & Dean, Anand University, Gujarat and CII resource person said mindset change in a positive way triggers new journey. Behaviour has potential to change attitude and creates the road of success. He shared technical insights and anecdotes from the spiritual world to reinforce the learning abilities of the audience.

Principal A S Deshpande said the endeavour aims to create pool of experts to create immense value.
